National College Fair Sponsor Policy

Participation and Eligibility

The National Association for College Admission Counseling (NACAC) seeks support from sponsoring organizations providing services and resources to students in search of access to higher education. Applications for sponsorship within National College Fairs are subject to approval by NACAC in consultation with the local and national college fair committees. NACAC closely reviews and evaluates all sponsors that are interested in promoting their services at the National College Fairs to ensure only reputable companies/organizations are present at the fairs. All sponsors that are approved must adhere to the Resource Center Guidelines.

Participating organizations are not required to provide only free services but must still adhere to NCF guidelines as outlined in the revised sponsorship policy.

Examples of eligible sponsors are:

- Banks/Student loan companies
- Testing agencies
- Non-Profit Foundations
- Scholarship Organizations
- State higher education lending programs

NACAC does not encourage or support the exclusivity of any financial partner in exchange for participation and representation at any of its National College Fairs.

Ineligible organizations include:

- Independent Educational Consultants/Groups
- Other organizations not related to students transition to higher education.

Cost and Benefits – $2,000 per fair

Lead Retrieval

Sponsors should pick up and return scanners at the TRC desk at each fair. One scanner is included with your sponsorship fee, if you wish to purchase an additional scanner for $60, please contact the NACAC sponsorship department.

Lead retrieval services are provided by Technology Resource Corporation (TRC), a company independent from the National Association for College Admission Counseling. TRC will make every reasonable effort to deliver scanned data within two business days from the conclusion of the fair. Each exhibitor is responsible for lost or misplaced scanners. The replacement cost is $600. NACAC will invoice once notified by TRC that the scanner has not been returned. Each scanner holds a maximum of 10,000 student scans. The scanner may be reset by visiting the TRC service desk during the event at no charge.
